

JOB'S DAUGHTERS PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, THE INTERNATIONAL ORDER OF JOB'S DAUGHTERS brings together young women, from 10 to 20 years of age, for spiritual and moral guidance, to inspire a desire for knowledge, to teach love of country and flag, love of home, respect for parents and elders, and reverence for the Holy Scriptures; and

WHEREAS, FOUNDED IN 1920, the organization strives to prepare better citizens by the development and practice of these traits and strengths of character through programs for civic service, social activities, and charitable projects. Education is very important in Job's Daughters. Each year the organization awards scholarships at the international and regional level to help girls achieve their educational goals; and

WHEREAS, JOB'S DAUGHTERS LEARN how to work together to achieve their goals, how to raise money and spend it wisely, how to speak to an audience, the fundamentals of parliamentary procedure, and the importance of community service; and

WHEREAS, JOB'S DAUGHTERS OF WYOMING has over 123 members and will observe their 98th Anniversary this year. They actively support the Hearing Impaired Kids Endowment (HIKE), an organization dedicated to helping children with impaired hearing, including aid for corrective surgeries and providing hearing aids.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that I, Mayor Pete Rust, do hereby proclaim in Wyoming March 5 – 9, 2018 as

JOB'S DAUGHTERS' WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 6th day of March, 2018.

Pete Rust, Mayor
