2019 Art on the Green

Live 24 hour 2D and 3D Art Competition

August 16-17, 2019

The Green River Arts Council is a City of Green River Mayor appointed volunteer board and each year in August they host this very unique event for artists and the public. This year the Arts Council has made a couple of small changes to the rules. Please take a moment to read over some of our new rules and guidelines for this year's competition. Each year the event is reviewed by the Green River Arts Council. It is the Council's goal to make improvements to better the artists and spectators experience. There are three specific changes that have been highlighted in the rules this year. Please call or email if you have any questions about the changes for the 2019 competition.
