D. COMPLIANCE CERTIFICATION

Home Occupations (including taxidermy) are subject to the conditions listed in Section 9.8(A) of the Green River City Zoning Ordinances. Please review the following conditions and initial on the line provided to verify understanding and compliance of your application.

General Conditions:

- _____ In addition to family members residing in the dwelling unit, only two (2) persons may be employed by an on-site home occupation. An off-site home occupation may employ no more than five (5) persons, in addition to family members residing in the dwelling unit. In addition to family members residing in the dwelling, more than five (5) employees for an off-site home occupation may be permitted with conditional use permit approval from the Planning and Zoning Commission.
- _____ The home occupation shall be clearly incidental and secondary to the use of the dwelling unit for dwelling purposes and not change the residential character thereof.
- _____ There shall be no exterior storage of materials incidental to the home occupation, on the site of the home occupation.
- _____ There shall be no change in the outside appearance of the building or premises, or other visible evidence of the conduct of the home occupation, including signs.
- _____ There shall be no offensive noise, vibration, smoke, dust, odors, heat or glare noticeable at or beyond the property line.
- _____ All outdoor activities associated with on-site home occupations, and all activities that produce noise, odor or light which is detectible beyond the residence, shall be limited to the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.
- _____ Equipment and motor vehicles:
- Mechanical equipment associated with the home occupation shall be stored or contained within the dwelling unit or an accessory building.
  - Motor vehicles, such as cars, trucks, and semi-tractors without the trailer unit, are permitted but may not be parked on the street or right-of-way.
  - Construction equipment under six thousand (6,000) pounds G.V.W. are permitted but must be stored within a garage or accessory building.
  - Equipment and vehicles not specifically mentioned in this section are prohibited.
- _____ The total area used for the Home Occupation shall not exceed twenty-five (25) percent of the gross floor area of the combined dwelling unit and attached garage.
- _____ Any parking incidental to a home occupation, whether for customers or employees, shall be provided on the site and must be improved. The street right-of-way may not be used for temporary parking by employees of an off-site home occupation. Home occupations that do not see customers at the residence need not provide additional on-site parking spaces.
- _____ Under no circumstances shall any of the following activities be considered a home occupation: restaurant, veterinarian's clinic, barber shop or beauty parlor with more than one station, animal kennels, on-site welding, automotive engine repair or service, automotive body shop, health clinic, mortuary, or nursing home. Taxidermy is permitted only with a conditional use permit approved by the Planning and Zoning Commission.
- _____ All home occupation permits shall expire on March 31st of each year and must be renewed annually.

STAFF USE ONLY:

_____ The use, storage, or disposal of materials that may affect the health, safety, welfare or character of the residential area must conform to standards set for those materials by the appropriate regulatory agency, and such materials may not be held in such quantities as to adversely affect the health, safety or welfare of the residential area.

Enforcement:

_____ All persons conducting a taxidermy home occupation shall be required to apply for and receive a Home Occupation Conditional Use Permit prior to commencing any activities related to the home occupation.

_____ The designated Community Development Staff may periodically inspect on-site and off-site home occupations to ensure compliance with the provisions of this Section. If the designated Community Development staff determines that the applicant has not complied with the requirements of this section, or if a signed written complaint about the home occupation is received, the home occupation permittee shall be brought before the Planning and Zoning Commission for further review.

_____ If the applicant cannot meet the requirements for a home occupation, the application shall be denied.

_____ The Planning and Zoning Commission has the authority to continue, suspend, revoke or amend the home occupation permit at anytime.

_____ In the event the Community Development Department deems it necessary and appropriate; he/she may request and/or require additional information and place additional conditions in the Home Occupation Permit.

_____ If there are any changes in the conditions or operation of the home occupation described in the application, as approved by either Community Development or the Planning and Zoning Commission, the applicant shall submit a new application and obtain approval of said changes in accordance with the requirements of this section.

E. CONDITIONAL USE PERMIT REVIEW PROCESS

The following outlines the process that is established by the Ordinances of the City of Green River. Please review for understanding of the process in which your application must follow. For questions regarding the process, please contact the Green River Community Development Department at 307-872-6140.

- After receipt of a complete application, the required non-refundable filing fee, a site plan showing all items listed under Section F., and 14 days prior to the Planning and Zoning Commission meeting, the Community Development Staff shall contact by letter, all adjacent property owners within 200 feet of the proposed taxidermy home occupation property. For your convenience, the Community Development Department will obtain the list of affected property owners.
- The letter shall indicate the time, date, and location of the public meeting at which the application will be considered.
- Adjacent property owners have fourteen (14) calendar days from the date of the letter to file with the Community Development Department a written objection to the home occupation.
- The applicant will be notified of the time, date and location of the Planning and Zoning Commission meeting at which the Commission shall consider the effect of the proposed Conditional Use on the health, safety, and general welfare of the surrounding properties, existing and anticipated traffic conditions including parking. The Commission may grant or deny by motion. The applicant shall be notified in writing of the action taken by the Planning and Zoning Commission. It is required that the applicant attend this meeting.
- If an application is denied, the denial shall constitute a finding that the applicant has not shown that the conditions required for approval exist. A Conditional Use Permit application that has been denied wholly or in part shall not be resubmitted for a period of six (6) months.
